NASSAU

A Guaranteed Adventure!

NASSAU HISTORY

Nassau is the capital of the Commonwealth of the Bahamas and the largest city on the island of New Providence. Even though it sits on one of the smaller islands, Nassau is home to more than half of the 250,000 people who live in the Bahamas and is one of the island's most charming towns.

Nassau's history is rich with adventure. When Christopher Columbus landed in 1492, some of the Bahamas were inhabited by Lucayan Indians. The Spaniards abandoned plans to stay when they discovered there was no gold on the islands.

English Puritans from Bermuda, seeking a new way of life, came to the islands about 150 years later and settled on Eleuthera. More settlers followed.

For many years, pirates and swashbucklers dominated the waters around the archipelago. Blackbeard was among the most famous of these. Civilization was restored in the islands when in 1717, Capt. Woodes Rogers, once a pirate himself, was enlisted as governor and initiated a clean-up. He offered full amnesty to all pirates who lowered their flags. Those that refused were destroyed.

Nassau prospered and fell many times over the course of the next 200 years. Before the turn of the century, Henry Flagler came to the Bahamas with the money and power needed to build the island in to a major resort town. World War I, however, stopped travel in the Atlantic, and Nassau again suffered economic devastation.

Luckily, prohibition in the U.S. afforded the islands some unusual luck. The first casino opened in 1929 and that same year, Pan Am began service to Nassau from Miami, bringing wealthy American tourists to the island.

Today, the Bahamas is the playground of vacationers from around the world who flock to the islands in search of sandy beaches, warm waters, world-class shops and resort, and friendly locals.

LOCAL WARES

Once the haven of pirates and rum runners, Nassau offers a wide variety of nautical souvenirs including authentic pirate's treasure coins, as well as delicious rums and rum products.

GUARANTEE

Shop with confidence, knowing that all merchants on this map have been carefully selected and each offers a 30 day guarantee to cruise line guests. This guarantee ensures buyers that all recommended merchants will repair or replace any unsatisfactory item, excluding buyer's negligence or buyer's remorse. For purposes of determining quality and value of jewelry related to a buyer's complaint, only appraisals secured by a buyer from independent graduate gemologists, not affiliated with any retail jeweler, will be acceptable. Please inquire about individual store return policies before finalizing any purchase.

The port shopping program is operated by Onboard Media, Inc. Participating merchants have paid an advertising fee to Onboard Media for inclusion in this program. Onboard Media handles all customer relations claims relating to the guarantee. If you become aware of a problem during the cruise, please contact the Discover Shopping Guide onboard for immediate assistance. If a problem arises after the cruise but within 30 days of the purchase date, contact the Customer Relations Department at
